

Before Image

After Image

Claude Sonnet 4

+1

After applies firm brush pressure at the final withdrawal of the horizontal stroke, so the tome is clearly formed. Before drifts somewhat.

GPT-4o

-1

In After the final segment swells roundly and the brush is not gathered, leaving a muddled shape. Before is tighter, and the tome is handled more straightforwardly.

Gemini 2.5 Flash

+1

In Before the shape collapses slightly and feels heavy; in After the withdrawal is well formed and one senses an intent toward the next stroke, making it more refined.